

MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT

Introduction

This statement is made pursuant to section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. It constitutes Oliver Wyman Limited (“Oliver Wyman”) and its subsidiaries slavery and human trafficking statement in respect of the financial year ending 31 December 2025.

Group Structure

Oliver Wyman is part of the Marsh group which is a global professional services firm offering clients advice and solutions in risk, strategy, and people. The Marsh group has approximately 95,000 employees worldwide and approximately 11,300 employees in the United Kingdom.

Our Business

Oliver Wyman, which is one of Marsh’s main operating companies, specialises in the provision of strategy economic and brand consulting services. Marsh’s other main operating companies are Mercer (health, wealth and career consulting), Guy Carpenter (reinsurance and capital strategies), and Marsh Risk (insurance broking and risk management).

Our Supply Chain

Oliver Wyman uses a central procurement process operated by Marsh which trades with more than 22,000 suppliers across over 82 different countries.

As a professional services provider, Oliver Wyman does not operate in an industry where modern slavery is prevalent but nevertheless is committed to taking steps to uncover any potential risks within its supply chain.

Our Policies

Oliver Wyman has various policies in place which aim to minimise the risk of modern slavery or human trafficking, and encourage reporting of any related concerns, including:

- A Robust Procurement Policy, in addition to the rigorous supplier assessment processes, including assessment of supplier modern slavery statements, Oliver Wyman has implemented an additional questionnaire focused on modern slavery activities/signals. The questionnaire is deployed on a risk basis, according to the nature of services provided. Suppliers are required to report what steps they are taking regarding identifying the risk of modern slavery within their particular supply chain which will allow Oliver Wyman to better assess the potential risks of modern slavery in its own supply chain.

Oliver Wyman includes a specific requirement for compliance with modern slavery legislation in its standard terms and conditions and contracting agreements.

- Vendor Management Program and Policy defining managing Vendor Risk, including:
 - How to identify vendor risk
 - How to mitigate vendor risk
 - How to monitor vendor risk
 - Who to contact for assistance

- The Greater Good, Marsh's Code of Conduct, is a significant part of Oliver Wyman's culture and makes clear that Oliver Wyman conducts business consistent with the highest ethical and professional standards and will not tolerate behaviour that deviates from those standards. Colleagues are expected to act with integrity, honesty, courage and promote mutual respect.
- Whistleblowing Policy Respect and a culture of openness in the workplace is a key aspect of the Marsh's Code of Conduct. Oliver Wyman encourages colleagues and other business partners to report any concerns, including any concerns relating to modern slavery or human trafficking.

Oliver Wyman's whistleblowing procedure utilises an Ethics & Compliance Line (a service administered by third party) which makes reporting easy and confidential.

Training

Oliver Wyman's Modern Slavery Policy has been rolled out to all staff and incorporated into induction training. It includes information on who staff should contact should they have any concerns.

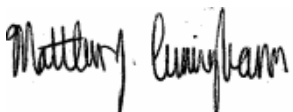

There is additional training for those staff most likely to interact with supply chains with a potentially higher risk of encountering modern slavery.

Company staff are encouraged to report any concerns or suspicions regarding the presence of modern slavery within the supply chain.

Going Forward

Oliver Wyman recognises that tackling modern slavery requires a continuing year-on-year commitment and will continue to undertake due diligence in our supply chain and review and improve procedures to help identify and prevent the risks of modern slavery or human trafficking.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and has been approved by the Board of the Company on 14th April 2026.
